Job Description/Person Specification

The person sought for this position should be:

- able to work as part of a team
- or able to work on their own initiative
- fit (as some fairly heavy lifting could be involved)
- flexible to help cover street cleaning for events such as Remembrance Day

The person sought will be, on a day to day basis, responsible to the Head Grounds Keeper. The main duties will be to keep the Recreation Grounds and High Street free of litter and empty the bins regularly. The role will also include litter picking the village estates on regular basis and respond to any complaints regarding litter that may be reported to the office.

The job will have a 6 month trial period after which time, if completed successfully, the Parish Council will make a decision whether to make the successful applicant a permanent member of staff.

This role is for 15 hours per week – hours/days to be agreed.

Protective clothing will be provided.
